Comments:

- Also known as Joshua the Son of Sirach
- The last of the Wisdom Books
- It is the longest of the Wisdom Books
- We read multiple chapters/paragraphs during the Great Lent in our Coptic Lectionary
- Sirach was written close to the Nativity of our Lord
- It was originally written in Hebrew and then translated into Greek
- The Book contains plenty of virtues and practical and reflective wisdom
- Sirach 51 is a thanksgiving prayer by Joshua
- Ch.2

- V.1: When we grow spiritually, the devil will increase the wars as long as we are getting closer to Christ as he wants us to fail
 - This is opposite to the people who think that being close to God will prevent temptations from them
- V.5: As gold gets more purified when tried in fire, the man also increases spiritually and gets purified more when he resists the devil
- V.11: God took care of the people before us and took care of us before in our lives, He will not stop!
- Ch.3
 - Ch. 2 talks about how to honor your father and mother
 - This chapter expands on the commandment that God gave Moses
 - V.1: The spiritually wise people come together to form the Church
 - V.19-34: Talks about the difference between a pure heart and an unwise heart
- Ch. 4
 - V.1-11: The importance of giving donations and supporting those who are in need
 - This has to be done with wisdom lest we give money to people who use it in bad/wrong means
 - V.11: If you support the poor, you become a child of God
- Ch.6
 - The importance of a Godly friend
 - V.17: Fearing god = Choosing friends who fear God too = Healthy friendships
- Ch. 24
 - The Fathers understand this chapter to be a reference to Christ
 - V.5: Begotten from the Father before all ages
 - V.7: He is a heavenly God
 - V.13: He incarnated as a seed of Jacob
 - V.14: He is an Etenral God

 - Medicine and medications are from God
 - V.2: God has blessed us with medicine and medications
 - V.3: The knowledge of a doctor is a talent that God gave to use for the glory of His name
 - V.4: Taking medications is not against the faith. We understand that God blessed us with these. The herbs are created by God that cause the cure
 - V.9: Being sick should encourage the person to pray more, not an excuse to not pray
 - V.9-12: shows the correct order. You pray and repent first, and then rely on medicine
 - V.14: A message to the doctor. Don't forget God's hand and always pray for the patients
